

The Misfits of Christmas
Anna's Story: A Lifetime of Looking
Luke 2:36-38

Questions to Ponder

Answer what speaks to you, ignore what doesn't!

Old Words that Divide

What words have created the stories that shape your life? What older words might God be calling you to?

Older Words that Unite

In her life of looking, Anna modeled hopeful expectation. What might that look like in your own life?

Inward & Outward Orientation

A Moment of Finding

Our story today had three generations... Where are you in the multi-generational spectrum? A child, young, middle age, or older adult? What gift might you offer to another generation (older or younger) such as Mary & Joseph offered Simeon and Anna (or vice versa)?